The two Chicago sleepers also jumped the track, but after running nearly three hundred yards thoy were pulled on again and escaped injury. When the crash came the porter, O. Warner, ran to the forward platform and jumped, but got off on the wrong side of the car, and when it fell over on its side, was buried under it. Fortunately there were only three passengers and the flagman on the sleeper, and in the meantime they were tossed about the car like balls, and all seriously hurt.

Caston, Pa., Aug. 19.—An ore train stopped at the Three Bridges, N. J. station on the Caston & Amboy division of the Lehigh Valley railroad last night for orders. The fast freight came along at a high rate of speed, and before the ore train could get out of the way, a collision occurred and the track was lined with broken cars and their contents. Amos Clark, the engineer of the freight held his post up to the last and in jumping, roiled down a ditch, receiving serious injuries. His fireman was slightly bruised. About sixteen cars and a locomo tive are wrecked and the track was blocked several hours.

Union Labor and Socialistic Delegated Ruled out of the Convention. SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 19,-The United

Labor party convention was to have reassembled at 9 this morning, but it was an hour and a half late. The reason was that three-score of the delegates from New York and Kings counties had sat up until 5 this morning to get even a word from the room at the Empire house, where the committee on credentials held a stormy session.

When this committee was named yesterday afternoon it was intended to exclude delegates who had any sympathy with the Socialists from the body, but as the business progressed it was found there were some stanoh friends of the Socialists on the committee. Both Dr. McGiynn and Henry George remained up all night with the others, anxious as to the result of the committee'e work. At the bour when the convention was to have been called to order the committee was still in session, and, although information was refused for publication, it became noised about that the contesting Socialistic delegates had been ruled out and only those holding United Labor party credentials accepted. The committee fluished its labors soon after 10 and at 10:80 the convention was called to order.

W. T. Crosdaie, of New York, chairman of the committee on credentials, read the majority report and by it the Socialistio delegates were denied admission to tho convention; Edward Fickelstein presented a minority report recommending that the Socialistic delegates be admitted. After a series of motions, amendments and substi-tutes had been offered, a motion was car-ried by which both sets of delegates—Socialists and United Labor-were allowed five minutes each in which to address the con-

Lynched By Moonshiners.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 19.—Some time ego the body of a white man was found hanging from a rafter in the school house of Smith's district, in Gwynette county. The neighbors said it was a case of suicide, took the body down, quietly buried it and made no inquiry as to the man's identity. Now comes the news that the man was really lynched, that he was suspected of being a revenue informer, and wandering into a district where there were four illicit stills in operation, the moonshiners made short work of him.

Cranks Annoying Mrs. Cleveland. Marion, Mass., Aug 19.-Mrs. Cleveland has not been entirely free from cranks even in this retired spot. A few days ago a man calling himself William J. Bryan arrived. TROOPS TO THE RESCUE.

SOLDIERS READY TO MARCH ON COLOROW AND HIS BAND.

The Ute Indians Receiving Reinforcements From Other Tribes-Over Three Hnudred of Them Ready for Battle. Women and Children in Peril, GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Col., Aug. 19 .- The White river Ute Indiane are said to have sent runners to the Uncompangre camp, the Blackfoot, the Sioux, the Crow and other tribes in Coiorado, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho for aid. Coiorow has determined, it is said, to have the other tribes brought into the present difficulty, and while the outhreak has been local so far, he wants to make it a national one.

Yesterday was an exciting one here. One company of state militia has reported and were supplimented by an organized band of volunteers healed by Under Sheriff Clements and Jack Ward, a settler familiar with Indian tactics and the country. The other state troops are on their way. If the state troops once get in the floid they will, from present indications, be able to quell the out-hreak and compel the hostiles to go back to the reservation or kill them.

Late advices show that the Indians are concentrating and at least three hundred of them are in the White River country ready for battle, which they will be able to maintain advantageously, being in a country with which they are thoroughly familiar and which will make their position impregnable. No very serious casualties have been reported yet, but the unprotected ranches are at the mercy of the houtiles, and to prevent it troops must begin to work.

Joe Reynolds, chairman of the board of county commissioners of Garfield county, arrived here last evening. A large body of Utes it is reported, is moving upon Meeker. Kendall is fifty or eighty miles away from Meeker, but brushes have occurred only a few miles from the settiement. Kendall must be engaged in brush fights, or eise the whole Ute tribe are on the warpath. County Assessor Van Cleef was under instructions this morning to call out the state militia, issuo a cali for voiunteers and beg, borrow or steal ammunition. It is thought that Coiorow's son has been killed, as a white man was seen riding his famous race horse, the horse being weil known in this section. Since that time man and horse are missing. If the boy has been killed a long war has certainly been inaugurated.

Another Account.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—A Denver dispatch to the Herald says that Colorow is in the mountains, north of Meeker, awaiting the arrival of fifty or seventy-five bucks from the agency, who are on their way to join him. When he hears of the killing of his son he will seek revenge, and will begin at Meeker, where there are 400 women and children.

At Meeker there are 150 men who will defend the place to the last. The adjutant general intends to force march a company of militia to Meeker to

It is a familiar sounding name to most everybody, hence we need no further introduction to the visitors to our Young Men's Fair. We will simply say that, as usual, we desire all our visitors to make our storerooms headquarters. We will take the best of care of you. In anticipation of this year's Fair being the Kentucky Fair par excellence, we have thoroughly renovated, decorated and beautified our rooms to that extent that we can justly claim that we have the most elegant and best appointed Clothing establishment in the State. Though somewhat early for the coming season, we are already prepared to show our friends a full and complete stock of Fall Goods. We have no space to enumerate; we will only say this: we believe no house in the State shows as complete a stock of Tailor-made Clothing and Merchant Tailoring Goods as we do! Our prices, considering the class of goods we sell, will be found more than satisfactory. Gentlemen in need of Shirts, Underwear, Collars, Cuffs, Hose, Ties, &c., will find just what they want in our house, During the week our Mr. DAVE HECHINGER will be found at the helm, and will be glad to welcome all of his friends at the ODDFELLOWS' HALL CLOTHING STORE. THE BULGARIAN MUDDLE.

STRANGE ACTIONS OF AUSTRIA, ENG-LAND, GERMANY AND ITALY.

Prince Ferdinand's Ascension to the Bulgarian Throne Places Several Countries in Very Embarrassing Situations.

Various Other Foreign News. London, Aug. 19 .- The Bulgarian queetion bas assumed a phase which puts the powers opposing the position that Russia took at the ontset and has since steadfastly adhered to ln a very ambarrassing atuation, and one from which they must speedly extricate themselves if they would preserve an unsullied seputation for consistency. From the beginning of the Balkan muddle, dated from the expulsion of Prince Alexander, Russia has acted entirely within the limits of the provisions of the treaty of Beriin and has exacted nothing more of the other powers than that they also should confine their action to the limitations of that convention.

In her recent controversies with the powers on the subject of the election of Prince Ferdinand to the Bulgarian throne held through her ambassadors, or directly from her foreign otlice, Russia has vory clearly pointed out the not to be controverted fact that as stickiers of strict observance of treaty obligations Austria, England, Germany and Italy are acting strangely at variance with their former professions in the present instance. So plainly has the accusation of inconsistency been put by the czar's government that Germany has found no difficulty in appreciating the justice of the charge, and has already begun to trim her sails to catch the breeze from another quarter, and the fact that the phlegmatic Teuton has veered from his course will unquestionably have the effect of causing the other passive abettors of Prince Ferdinand's virtual seizure of the Bulgarian throne to set a sharn lookout for breakers shead.

The rule of Prince Ferdinand in Bulgaria, should it be permitted by Russia, could redound to possible disadvantage to England, Italy, or even Austria, that the rule of any other prince would not give them, nor would the rule of any other prince ellgible to the Bulgarian throne under the terms of the Berlin treaty provedetrlmental to the interest of these powers, so long as the local status of the principality was maintained. The rule of the Prince of Mingrelia or the Prince of Oldenburg in Bulgaria, could not materially affect any interest or enterprise that England has in or near that country. nor would the presence of either on the throne at Solia render a whit more uncertain the chances of Austria's ultimately obtaining possession of Saionica. Whatever reasons, singly or collectively, the powers may offer for opposing Russia's demands that the Bulgarian throne shall be fliled in a manner strictly legal, the situation presents uo aspect indicating that they are actuated by any higher motive than that of thwarting the wishes of a power of which they are jealous or afraid.

If Russia is forced to resort to war to uphold her Balkan policy-and she will certainly fight rather than depart from itthe spectacles will be presented of the country to curtail whose power the treaty of Berlin was peculiarly formulated, plunging into war to maintain the terms of that treaty inviolate, while the other signatory powers contest her right to do so and endeavor to prove the invalidity and illegality of their own work. It seems impossible that stultification can be carried to this extreme Hlaine in London.

London, Aug. 19. - Mr. James G. Blaine was in London on Sunday. He is said to have told a friend that he was on the eve of making a short tour of the continent, but his movements since his departure from Ireland have been kept so completely in the dark that this statement may have been made for the purpose of throwing news hunters off the scent, or may not have been made at all. At all events it is unlikely that any further information as to the American statesman's ltinerary will be given to the public while he remains in England, since his experience in Ireland has taught him the value of secretiveness and seclusion. Absolutely nothing definite can be learned of his Intentions through the ordinary process of interviewing, and, as a matter of fact, the gentles an has become almost as inaccessible as the queen herseif.
